Nearly all teenagers will experience breakouts at some point! We have all been there & know how frustrating it is. Many teenagers make the mistake of using many products they see advertised to treat spots but sometimes these products can aggravate the concern in the long term. This is where consulting with a professional skin therapist can be invaluable to discuss their skin concerns & how to get results with their products.

Dermalogica ClearStart Facial is perfect for teenage boys & girls. Your therapist will talk with you about how you find your skin & give you the chance to ask any questions you may have about your skin. After your facial, your therapist will discuss your homecare & recommend Dermalogica ClearStart Products to start you on your clear skin journey. This is a fantastic treatment to help clear a teenage skin while also providing education on how best to treat their skin!

Parents are more than welcome to come along too.
